

Please do not allow LPFM stations to take over our local FM translators! We are saddened to think that a national station such as K-LOVE might be lost to hundreds of thousands of listeners. We continue to support such a great radio station even though we do not have access in our new home. Who knows, a translator may allow us to hear our favorite station in our new town. Please respect their service!